

Networking Luncheon with BoardAgender's SG50 Champions of Change

6th May 2016, 12pm-2pm, Tower Club

Euleen Goh
Independent Director
Capitaland, DBS, SATS and Royal Dutch Shell.

Ms Euleen Goh is a non-executive board member of Royal Dutch Shell plc, CapitaLand Limited, SATS Ltd, DBS Group Holdings Ltd, DBS Bank Ltd, Singapore Health Services Pte Ltd and a Trustee of the Singapore Institute of International Affairs Endowment Fund. She also chairs the Board of her alma mater, Singapore Chinese Girls' School and the Board of Governors of NorthLight School as well as DBS Foundation Ltd.

Ms Goh is also the Rector of Cinnamon College, National University of Singapore. This is a non-executive role, working with the College Master to set strategic directions for the college.

A Chartered Accountant from the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, she also holds further professional qualifications in banking and taxation. Ms Goh is also a Fellow of the Singapore Institute of Directors.

Ms. Goh held various senior management positions in Standard Chartered Bank, travelling widely throughout the Group's operations in the course of her duties. She retired in March 2006 after some 21 years with the Bank. Amongst her various roles with the Bank, she was Group Head of Corporate and Institutional Banking Sales and latterly, as Chief Executive Officer of Standard Chartered Bank, Singapore.

She has also held non-executive appointments on various boards including Singapore Airlines Limited, Aviva plc, Singapore Exchange Limited, MediaCorp Pte Ltd, Standard Chartered Bank Thai plc and Standard Chartered Bank Malaysia Berhad. She is the former Chairman of Singapore International Foundation, International Enterprise Singapore and Accounting Standards Council, Singapore as well as a former member of the Management Advisory Board of the NUS Business School.

Ms Goh was named as Her World Woman of the Year 2005. She was awarded a Public Service Medal for her contributions to the Financial Services sector in the same year and a Public Service Star for her work with the Accounting Standards Council in 2012. In May 2013, she was appointed a Justice of the Peace.

Networking Luncheon with BoardAgender's SG50 Champions of Change

6th May 2016, 12pm-2pm, Tower Club

Goh Swee Chen
Chairperson
Shell Companies in Singapore

Goh Swee Chen has been Chairperson of Shell Companies in Singapore since October 2014.

Concurrent to her country chair role, Swee Chen is also Vice President, Lubricants – Asia Pacific, a role she undertook since 2011.

Swee Chen joined Shell in 2003 and was with Procter & Gamble and IBM before this. A global leader, she had lived and worked in Singapore, Malaysia, Netherlands, Australia, USA, Japan and China. She spent a large part of her career in global roles, leading significant businesses with multinational teams. Swee Chen has a diverse professional background having spent her career in IT, Real Estate, Business Improvement and running large P&L businesses.

Other than chairing the Shell Companies in Singapore, Swee Chen also chairs/sat in the Board of several Shell Joint Venture in China and Saudi Arabia. She is also a Board Member of Singapore International Chamber of Commerce, Advisory member of NUS MEM Program and a Member of the Singapore National Climate Change network.

She graduated with a B.Sc. from Victoria University and an MBA from Chicago Booth. Swee Chen is married with three children.

Simon Israel
Chairman
Singapore Telecommunications Limited

Mr Simon Israel, 62, was appointed Chairman of Singapore Telecommunications Limited ("SingTel") on 29 July 2011. He has been a Director on the SingTel Board since 4 July 2003. Mr Israel is also a Director of Capitaland Limited, Fonterra Co-operative Group Limited and Stewardship Asia Centre Pte. Ltd. He is also a Member of the Governing Board of Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy and the Westpac Asia Advisory Board.

Mr Israel was an Executive Director and President of Temasek Holdings (Private) Limited before retiring in July 2011. Prior to that, he was Chairman, Asia Pacific of the Danone Group. Mr Israel also held various positions in Sara Lee Corporation before becoming President (Household and Personal Care), Asia Pacific.

Mr Israel is the former Chairman of Asia Pacific Breweries Limited, Asia Pacific Breweries Foundation and the Singapore Tourism Board. He is also a former Director of Fraser and Neave Limited and Neptune Orient Lines Limited.

Mr Israel was conferred Knight in the Legion of Honour by the French government in 2007, and awarded the Public Service Medal in Singapore's 2011 National Day Awards.

He holds a Diploma in Business Studies from The University of the South Pacific.